

How to write a Text Response | Essay structure | Lisa Tran

yes this video is going to be a big one because we're talking about how to write an actual text response today I'm going to take you through planning introductions body paragraphs steel structure conclusion give you examples as we go through using the text Macbeth so if you are not speak Macbeth don't stress because this is really just to give you a general example and with the knowledge that you can take away from this video you should be able to apply that to your own text text response is something that we do all the way from year 7 through 10 year 12 so let's just get through this and at the end of it I hope that everything makes sense to you guys and if it doesn't put your questions down in the comment section below and I'll either answer them in a comment or hurt me even do a video on them if I think it's you know important enough for us to go into detail so yeah let's get into it so the essay topic we're using today is Macbeth deserves his downfall discuss to start off with I always write a plan and a plan is incredibly essential because it just sets everything in motion ahead of time ensures that you stay on track and that you won't go off topic later on so I actually did a video on this which I'll link up above for you guys go ahead and watch that if you want more details on how to actually write a plan and in that video I go through with you how I would physically write out a plan myself so I think it was actually very helpful for a lot of students and teachers showed it in schools so yeah go ahead and check it out so firstly I look at keywords and for me the key words are Macbeth deserves downfall and of course you can chuck and discuss truth if you want I know that this is pretty much the entire prompt itself but you know the short of the prompt the more crucial HP word becomes contention so a contention is the overall argument about the topic your contention should be bran from your own opinion so ask yourself what do I think about the prompt do I agree do I disagree am I on the fence are there any other important Russians I think need to be discussed your contention then becomes the point you're trying to prove throughout your entire essay (also you can buy an essay from the service to which students CheetahPapers pay for research paper online) for example if a prompt is Macbeth deserves his downfall discuss your contention should be could be while fate and other characters contribute to Macbeth's demise he's ultimately responsible and therefore deserving of his self-inflicted downfall then you move into arguments your arguments support your overall contention and appoints to prove your contention each essay usually has around three to five main arguments which become your body paragraphs for example you could have argument won the witches prophesy and Lady Macbeth taunts set inversion Macbeth tragic fate argument true